The Gettysburg Address

"Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field, as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate—we can not consecrate—we can not hallow—this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

– President Abraham Lincoln

“The Battle Hymn of the Republic”

Mine eyes have seen the glory
Of the coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage
Where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning
Of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watchfires
Of a hundred circling camps
They have builded Him an altar
In the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence
By the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet
That shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men
Before His judgement seat;
Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer Him;
Be jubilant, my feet;
Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies
Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom
That transfigures you and me;
As He died to make men holy,
Let us die to make men free;
While God is marching on.

Chorus
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

Psalm 27:3-4 NIV

*<sup>3</sup> Though an army besiege me,
my heart will not fear;
though war break out against me, even then I will be confident. <sup>4</sup> One thing I ask from the Lord, this only do I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the Lord and to seek him in his temple.*

Praises:

- Praise the Lord for Shepherd Community! It was wonderful message from Rev. Allen Southerland as he highlighted their ministry to the inner city, as well as Pentecost and our need for the help of the Holy Spirit. We raised nearly $600 for their efforts.
- Praise the Lord for our Food Pantry! We truly appreciate Brad and Lisa Nichols, along with Allen Brown, who put many hours into keeping this ministry thriving each week. Only God knows how many families have been blessed and helped through their efforts. Also, thank you to everyone who helped bring in food Sunday for the pantry! We filled up both bins with food. Praise the Lord!
- Praise the Lord for our Musicians and Praise Team! With the absence of a pianist Sunday, Peyton Broce stepped up and led our worship from an acoustic guitar and did a beautiful job! The praise team sounded wonderful. Our church is very blessed when it comes to talented individuals who love the Lord!

Prayer Needs:

- Please pray for Israel and the conflict they are involved in – that the Lord will be their defense and shield.
- Pray for our country, President, Congress, Senate, and for the Lord to be the God of this nation again.
- For personal prayer needs, please see the mailed and emailed copies of the church newsletter.

Those names listed below will be read and a family member will receive a rose in memory of their loved one. For those who requested their loved ones to be added to the General Nazarene Missions International Memorial Roll, a living memorial of a $75 contribution was paid and a framed certificate will be given.
